re-treat [ri'trēt]: a period of group withdrawal for prayer, meditation, study, or instruction; a quiet or secluded place in which one can rest and relax.

EPC Annual Labor Day Retreat: [Many different words have been used by the thousands of LDR participants over the past nearly 50 years to describe their experiences.] Here's just a few of the things that define and are loved about Labor Day Retreat . . . catching up with old friends and are loved about Labor Day Retreat . . . catching up hymn sings, Bible study, quiet conversations, outdoor explorations, engaging programs, puzzles, long walks, lots of space for kids to roam, star-gazing, good food, riding bikes, ball games, coffee house, catching that big fish, hanging out with friends, dancing, crafts, playing games, swimming, vespers in the woods . . .
. . . what will you love about Labor Day Retreat?
